ABOUT MARION

Marion De Ré
SASS ♥ SWOON ♥ SIZZLE

Marion De Ré is a closed-door romantic comedy author. She lives in the French countryside with her husband and adorable cat. You can expect all your beloved tropes in her writing as well as a good dose of humor and all the feels. When she's not reading or writing, you can find her on a plane to a far-away destination or in a Champagne cellar, indulging in a tasting of her favorite drink. Her favorite trope to write is Fake Relationship, although she has a sweet spot for Sports Romance.

A NOTE FROM MARION

Hi there!

Thank you so much for choosing my book for this month's book club! I'm so honored to be a part of it.

I hope you'll enjoy this swoony marriage of convenience story.

Writing about Jane and Colton was such a treat and I loved how similar their backstories were. Characters often choose their own paths and speak to me as I write the books and this was no different.

Love,

Marion De Ré

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. This book is a romcom, but also touches on deeper and difficult subjects. Did you feel there was a good balance between the light-hearted tone and the deeper aspects? Did you like this addition?
2. Do you feel you could relate to Jane? Was she easy to root for?
3. This book is told in dual POV. Do you usually prefer single or dual POV books? How did the dual POV affected the story?
4. Do you enjoy pets as side characters in books? Did you think Truffles was a good addition to the story?
5. Were there any moments that made you tear up or snort-laugh your coffee?
6. How did you feel about Jane and Colton's chemistry and compatibility? Did you root for them from the start?
7. Marriage of convenience is usually found in Historical Romance, what do you think of this trope in a modern setting? Was it believable for you?
8. Do you have a favorite moment or scene? Or maybe a favorite quote from the book?
9. Did you read the book in one sitting or was it more a slow burn?
10. There's a Harry Potter reference in this book and the Monopoly game is really present. Do you like these kinds of tie to real life or do you feel it's pulling you from the story?
11. Did you like the ending? What would you have done in Jane's place?
12. We get to witness Wade and Roxy's wedding in this one. They're the main couple in the previous book. Did their appearance compel you to read their story?
13. Would you want to read another book by this author?
14. There's a list of reader expectations at the beginning of the book. Did you read it or skip it? Do you think it's important for authors to add expectations at the front of their books?
15. Give three adjectives to this book.
